Participant Authorization Form to release personal information for publication

This form is to be completed by participants in racing and breeding to give the Ontario Racing Commission, or its agents, authorization to release their contact information for the purposes of a publication listing available industry trainers, breeders and service providers.

The Ontario Racing Commission takes its responsibility to protect your personal information very seriously.

Under requirements of provincial law, the ORC, or its agents, will only release personal information where an individual has given express written authorization.

Declaration by participant

I, the undersigned, authorize the Ontario Racing Commission to release my contact information for publication as follows:

1. mailing address
2. phone numbers
3. e-mail addresses

I understand, and agree that, the public may use the information to contact me and that this information will continue to be available until such time as I withdraw my authorization, by submitting that to the Ontario Racing Commission in writing.
